

The slopes are calling...
Let's go!

Gather your group, grab your boots, clamp your skis – it's time to ski!

This is it. It's time to press play. It's time for us all to get back to doing what we love! We've shown our resilience, our passion is here, the slopes are calling and we're more than ready to take you there! "A pair of skis are the ultimate transportation to freedom!"

Working with schools during these unprecedented times has taught us so much about what we can all achieve together. During turbulent and challenging times we stayed true to our values - keeping our customers best interests at the heart of everything we do. This is something we are committed to taking into our future. Our dedication to providing exceptional school ski trip experiences remains.

Never have students needed it more...

"Our mantra for choosing a travel company would be to ensure value, whilst keeping everyone safe. To have a good, stress-free time, with excellent skiing too. Rayburn fits the bill every time!"

- Andy Martin, Passmores Academy

We can't wait to get back to helping you plan amazing ski trip experiences for your school!

Team Rayburn 👍

"Rayburn deliver a first-class service from initial enquiry and booking right through to their reps travelling with the group and being on hand in resort. They handle day to day queries efficiently and liaise directly with the hotel, ski fit and lunch stops to try and meet all of your school's individual needs."

Jaw-dropping geography

Rich in history

Home to high altitude skiing and Olympic pistes, where spellbinding summits overlook charming resorts, a school ski trip to Italy promises quality at an affordable price. Easy to reach by coach or air, it's perfect for groups who don't want to travel far. Fuelled on the slopes by authentic Italian pizza, you can enjoy passionate local instructors, low queue times, great skiing conditions and excellent accommodation, all topped off with traditional Italian hospitality.

“ Italy works so well for schools because the resorts have centrally located and affordable hotel options, so you can stay piste side and ski some of the largest and highest resorts in the Alps. As well as great hospitality, all resorts have convenient and fun après ski options and the superb road and flight links make it the best fit for a school ski trip. ”

LOOKING FOR HIGH ALTITUDE?

Head north to Santa Caterina (p12) and Madesimo (p14).

BEST ALL-ROUNDER?

Bormio has great hotels and incredible skiing, whilst Bardonecchia has great piste-side hotel options.

“Holistically our best ski tour group experience to date.” Tony Jenkins, Prior Park College, Italy 2020

BEST FOR BEGINNERS?

Prato Nevoso (p16) and Tarvisio (p17) have excellent beginner terrain.

AMAZING FOR ADVANCED SKIERS?

Sestriere (p10) is part of the 400km Milky Way ski area and Olympic ski area of 2006.

SNOW-SURE ALL SEASON ROUND

Sestriere

A purpose-built resort, chosen for its high altitude and dramatic mountain landscape, Sestriere is snow-sure all season round. As the main resort for the 2006 Olympics, beginners can progress on the nursery slopes whilst experienced skiers can tackle the Olympic downhill. Making things even easier, the ski school, ski hire and lifts are all within walking distance of the hotels.

Piste-side accommodation

The rustic mountain-style décor and 4-star facilities make this hotel the perfect home away from home. Located directly on the ski slopes and just 200m from the resort centre and main chairlift, school skiing's never been easier. Enjoy the hotel's authentic Italian cuisine with its very own pizza oven and unwind in the indoor pool.

FANTASTIC SKIING WITH SMALL TOWN CHARM

Madesimo

A haven for beginners and improvers, Madesimo has over 85% of its runs dedicated to progression. With uncrowded slopes and minimal lift queues, skiers can enjoy a variety of terrain: from tree-lined runs to high altitude pistes, as well as the ability to ski back to your hotel. Make sure you explore the village's quaint shops and restaurants, then skate the night away on the ice rink in this traditional 'alpine feel' resort.

A small country that packs a punch

The country of Andorra can fit into the city of London more than 3 times, making it the 17th smallest country in the world! Having said this its home to 180 miles of stunning pisted slopes, that continue to attract schools, year after year. With guaranteed snow and varied terrain, a school ski trip to Andorra is perfect for beginners and intermediates. Base yourself in the small Pyrenean nation's vibrant capital and enjoy access to a host of lively après opportunities. Boasting 4-star accommodation and skiing that'll keep everyone in the group happy and challenged, Andorra is an all-round crowd-pleaser.

“ Fabulous and uncrowded, the slopes of Vallnord and Grandvalira offer great variety, from challenging reds and tree-lined blues to well managed beginners’ areas. Stay in Andorra la Vella and have access to a host of activities like bowling, tapas nights and even the thermal spa. With tax-free shopping and many of the high street favourites, what more could you want? ”
